Steve Shyman is a safer money specialist. He believes that when it comes to a client's money, safety should be the first goal. He is registered member of the national ethics association. He has his CPA certification. Over the last 10 years, he has helped hundreds of people plan for a better financial life. Steve's process is to meet with his clients, understand where they are today and what they want to accomplish. He then will analyze their current situation and discuss the pros and cons of the current situation. Then based on the client's goals, Steve will make appropriate recommendations that help the client meet their goals. Pros and cons of each recommendation are discussed. This goal of this thorough review is to educate the client empowering them to make better financial decisions going forward. His main focus is to help his clients position themselves so that they can protect and grow their wealth by maximizing gains, minimizing losses, so they can best provide for their families and sleep well not worrying about their money.
